Vesna Taverna - French Cuisine with a twist For well over a decade this well known restaurant has opened it's door to the public with an interesting Greek, American and French cuisine kitchen. And it's positioned right in the heart of the action on the busy Airport Road in the Simpson Bay area with the Palapa Marina right behind her. It is a wonderful location to dine and unwind with the option to top up your evening with a dance or cocktail right next door or with other bars just on the other side of the bridge towards Philipsburg. On the other side, you are minutes away from the rural Maho and airstrip. With it's parking right in front you welcome any guests with ease as they step out of the car, right into the restaurant. Perfect for those rainy days. The restaurant hosts up to about 75 people when creative and always has a nice breeze going through because of the open shutters. There are various sizes tables right at the
